Christian Lies

Words & Music by: Robin Stevens

They said with Jesus you'd never be lonely
You'd know his presence, be sure of his care
No ache inside you for listeners with faces
No desperation you needed to share
So why all this anguish?
Where is the peace I was promised back there?
O where?

They said with Jesus I'd smile and be happy
That deep contentment would flow from within
I'd feel secure once I joined his great family
I'd feel forgiven on confession of sin
So what do I think now?
They told me Christian lies...
Tried to deceive me with those Christian lies

Where is the Jesus I heard of, and
Where's the joy that he brings?
Where is the lightness they told me of
When they led me to your side?
Where is the wonder of knowing you?
Where is your presence in my life?

Master, won't you come to me?
Meet me in my pain?
You know I'm desolate without you
Come and touch my life again!

They said with Jesus you're never a loser
You'll always triumph with God on your side
No talk of struggle, just victory and laughter
No more confusion with Christ as your guide
But life in God's kingdom
Seems like I'm battling on the weaker side

I say with Jesus there's heartache and trouble
There's disappointment, failure and trial
There's persecution and victimisation
I say you fight with your back to the wall
So what really happened?
They told me Christian lies...
Tried to deceive me with those Christian lies...
Filthy Christian lies!

Where is the Jesus I heard of, and
Where's the joy that he brings?
